

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

A diverse and free media is the only way to insure democracy. The media today though is way to concentrated in the powerful rich hands of the few. Instead of loosening the rules we should be strengthening them. For one media outlets should not be allowed to be owned by big industry, especially defence contractors.